JOHN T. MCBRIDE,
JOHN KOEBER,
Committee.John T. McBride, Secretary, 311 S.
Main st., Akron, O.If Gov. Nash resigns from the Republican ticket, Gen. Dick will be appointed to fill his place. The General always was long on provisional honors.The selection of Lieutenant Governor Caldwell as a member of the committee to notify Gov. Nash of his re-nominization was one of the sarcasms of the Columbus convention.A Paris artist of prominence declares that the wives of American millionaires are devoid of taste, and that therefore American art is neglected. This inferiority ought to offer a suggestion to Mr. Carnegie.Youngstown is to have a $10,000,000 oil cloth trust, unless the hopes of the promoters go glimmering. If the proposed trust stays there no longer than some other trusts Youngstown has counted on, the city directory man will not have to issue a special edition to record the increase of population.In its edition of yesterday the Philadelphia Record remarked that Senator Hanna, "although most omnipotent in the back parlors of Trust offices, seems to be rather small beer in his own party in his own state. Why is this thus?" Either the Record needs a new correspondent in Ohio, or it has not heard from the Columbus convention.It was notable that the resolutions of the Columbus convention endorsed a great many things, including the Ship Subsidy bill, about which, for the sake of Mr. McKinley's canvass, the convention was discreetly silent last year. But as neither Uncle Mark nor Mr. McKinley are running for anything this year, it is all right to load the experiments upon Senator Foraker.The fact that several of the companies which would be the chief beneficiaries of the Hanna Ship Subsidy bill have been merged into a trust since Congress adjourned, did not deter the Columbus convention from putting a special endorsement upon the subsidy bill. And there were words of praise also for every other plan of taxing the people to pay a tribute to the privileged interests. Against these endorsements the promise to bring about a readjustment of the Ohio tax burden appears to be about as sincere as the declaration to regulate and restrain the predatory trusts.The following statement, signed by Mr. W. J. Bryan, appeared Tuesday in the Buffalo Times:"I am not only not a candidate for any position, but I have no candidate in mind for any position. The Democratic party stands for positive principles. Those who argue from the standpoint of expediency will not have the influence with the voters, because no one can say what is a precedent.
We may deserve to win and yet lose, but it still remains that to deserve to win is the surest road to success."This statement ought to be explicit and positive enough to satisfy Mr.
Bryan's critics.The Ashtabula Beacon-Record reports a fish story from Geneva to the effect that a party of fishermen standing upon the beach near that village discovered a school of whales. One of the "whales," when caught, was large enough to be divided among thirty of the fishermen. We call attention to this circumstance for the especial benefit of Mr. L. C. Miles. Here is his opportunity to provide for his colored political brethren the whales which he promised them last spring.
Since the triumphal entry of Gen. Dick into politics, the benevolent and self-sacrificing Republican leaders of Ashtabula county feel so kindly toward their Summit county neighbors that they will send a whole cargo of whales to Mr. Miles on the simple condition that he pay the freight.WISE and Otherwise.They would have used guns in Kentucky.On the other hand, it certainly was no joke.The Seniors are now "off on the voyage."Not a word about prize-fighting in the resolutions.Why wouldn't a cowboy make a first-rate dog-catcher.When West Hill and North Hill meet, then—there's trouble.Maybe the police could be taught to use the larlat effectively.Don't tell all you know when you really don't know it, you know.Better hide the clothes lines and pieces of stray rope from Johnnie.Dog catcher Steely's name is all right, but he needs an iron nerve.If that mode of punishment becomes common, prices of whips will advance.If every dog must have his day, Mr.
Steely should give them 24 hours of grace.The Cincinnati Post made no mistake in taking back what it said about Judge Kohler.Nippert—Nippert—what a very suspicious name with which to locate the Anti-Slavery league!Somebody was just saying that there was a "W" on the wings of locusts found in this vicinity.Buffalo Bill's show would have done even a brisker business had it given a reproduction of the recent Senatorial convention.What a glorious Fourth of July celebration the show would make.
Nothing is wanting but for some one to read the Declaration of Independence.Unless some new hero is found soon there's going to be a shortage in the list of names for babies. A Dewey or Hobson hasn't been reported for several months.

BUCHTEL LOSES
HER PRESIDENT.Dr Priest Tendered His Resignation Today.Degrees Conferred on the Graduating Class This Morning--Commencement Events.Dr. Ira A. Priest has resigned the presidency of Buchtel college. The resignation was sent to the trustees late Tuesday afternoon and for a long time was discussed by them.Dr. Priest was sent for and asked to reconsider his action. He stated that he could not well do so and the resignation was at last accepted to take effect June 30.A committee of five, consisting of Hon. Geo. W. Crouse, J. A. Arbogast, Rev. A. B. Church and Dr. H. L.
Caulfield, was appointed to find a successor to Dr. Priest, and report to the Board of Trustees.No special man for the place is yet in view.The news of the resignation is received by Buchtel students as the one saddening incident of commencement. It had been reported for some time that Dr. Priest would resign, but it was given little credit by the greater number of the students of the college.

By many of Akron people

Dr. Priest's resignation is also considered a severe loss to the college and city. He was never held in higher esteem than since his sermon to the seniors last Sunday.Dr. Priest expects to return to the ministry. His plans for the future are not definitely known. There has been some criticism of Dr. Priest by certain of those connected with the college and his resignation was not unexpected by them.

TRUSTEES

Three New Ones Elected by the Board.The Board of Trustees of Buchtel college had a very busy day at their annual meeting at Buchtel hall, Tuesday. The morning's session proved too short to dispose of any but minor business.In the afternoon the six trustees, whose terms expired, were re-elected.

DR. IRA A. PRIEST,

Resigned From the Presidency of Buchtel College.

He came here in October, 1896, and after a short pastorate at the Universalist church, was elected president of the college. His resignation has caused deep regret, as under his guidance the college has been brought forward to a very high standard. Perhaps, during his presidency, he has witnessed the most critical period within the existence of the college—aw it burned to the ground, but never weakened in his courage or belief that a new Buchtel would arise, and has labored valiantly with others to rebuild the hopes of all. They have been fulfilled. Buchtel college, sacred in memory to Alumni and in the minds of students, was more to them than a structure of brick and mortar. But the building has been reared again, and in a short year, during which there were undoubtedly many disadvantages, excepting in readiness to begin the new year under conditions even more satisfactory than those existing prior to the fire. Dr. Priest did not resign when there were great hills to climb. He labored hard with others to restore good conditions, and now leaves after the victory has been won.Dr. Priest was born at Mt. Holly, Vermont in 1854. He began teaching school when 18 years of age, graduated from Goddard Seminary in 1880, and afterwards spent four years in the theological department of Tufts College in Boston. After graduating as a minister, he accepted a call to preach at Adams, Mass.; after preaching there until 1892, he accepted a call to Newtown, Mass., where he remained until his coming to Akron.Dr. Priest is also chaplain of the Eighth regiment, O. N. G., the accompanying out showing him in uniform.Commissioners tried to induce one of Buffalo Bill's Indians to stop over and take a whirl at the dog-catching business, was probably started only for fun.

"Papa?"

"Well, Willie?"

"Don't you let them Indians with Buffalo Bill were glad Captain Sam Brady is dead?"

"Why, how you talk?"

"Didn't he used to be in this neighborhood, and kill whole lots of Indians?"

"I 'spose so."

"Don't you know?"

"Willie don't talk so much."

"But papa, don't you know what it says in the book?"

"Do be still."

"It says—"

"Three big Indians sittin' in a row—"

"Brady takes aim and away they go."

THE INHALATION OF OZONE

FOR THE CURE OF CATARRH, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, DEAFNESS AND ALL DISEASES AFFECTING THE RESPIRATORY ORGANS.Ozone in its nascent condition has come to be regarded as a most valuable agent for treating diseases affecting the air passages. It is a very powerful germicide, and will permeate cellular tissue which cannot be reached by sprays or medicated vapors. It increases the red corpuscles of the blood, imparting strength and vitality.
Ozone simply destroys the germs and you get well naturally.Call at the office of Dr. Ramsey and investigate this new and marvelous treatment.Consultation and examination free and welcome.Free demonstration in X-Ray work Wednesday evening from 7:30 to 8:30.

Messrs. Wm. Buchtel, Akron; Robert Tucker, Toledo, and H. B. Briggs, of Cleveland.Those re-elected were: Hon. Geo.
W. Crouse, Akron; J. A. Arbogast, Esq., Akron; Rev. C. F. Henry, Cleveland; Mr. Arthur A. Stearns, Cleveland; W. T. Sawyer, Esq., Akron, and Mr. W. L. Carlton, Akron.All the old officers were re-elected as follows: Hon. Geo. W. Crouse, president; Judge N. D. Tibbals, vice president, and C. R. Olin, secretary and treasurer.The affairs of the college were discussed at great length, but aside from suggestions being made for the betterment and progress of the college, no changes in policy or executive methods were made. There will be no change in the faculty except that caused by President Priest's resignation.

THE ALUMNI.

They Feasted and Toasted at the Buchtel.The annual banquet of the Alumni Association of the college, at the Hotel Buchtel, Tuesday evening, was a fitting successor to those of former years.Seventy guests surrounded the banquet table, and with speeches reluciant and prophetic testified to their love for their alma mater.Hon. Joseph Holly was toastmaster.
For the faculty, Professor O. E. Olin and Professor C. C. Bates responded.
Rev. A. B. Church responded for the trustees and Miss Grace Kellam for the seniors.For the Alumni, Miss Belle Slade and Herbert B. Briggs were the speakers.It was after midnight when the guests departed.

DEDICATION

Of New Buchtel Hall Wednesday Afternoon.The dedication services of the new Buchtel hall were held Wednesday afternoon on Buchtel campus. Music and addresses by local speakers and noted men from abroad, made the affair a success.

FIFTEEN

Students Were Graduated Wednesday.Annual Address by Dr. W. S.
Crouse.Solemn and impressive were the exercises incident to commencement at Buchtel College, Wednesday morning. The day dawned bright and clear, symbolic and expressive of the attitude of the members of the class, now beginning their lives of practical and spiritual influence in the world.
Crouse gymnasium was decked with the colors of the college, the colors of the class, palms and potted plants, all whose ambition was for now stepping out in the world, together with their many friends and relatives completed the picture.The annual address to the students, by Dr. W. S. Crouse, of New York, was rather notably a departure from the style of address common to such occasions.The thoughts were simple, direct, yet a profound wisdom.He took as his subject, "Does Higher Education Pay?" and discouraged all whose ambition was for worldly wealth from seeking profound knowledge."Higher education may never earn you a dollar. In driving shrewd bargains it may not help you."But the idea of money for its own sake is wrong."I want you to take a broad view of life. Ask yourselves 'what is life for?'""Money getting has its usefulness only when it serves the mind."President Priest's address to the graduating class was brief, full of kindly advice, and in the conferring of degrees upon the members he admonished them never to dishonor their diplomas.The degree of Bachelor of Science was conferred on Orill A. Cole, of Norwalk, of the class of '99, and on Wilson A. Putt, of Warren, who leftcollege shortly before having finished his course.The honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity was given Andrew Wetson, of Ravenna, in recognition of his services to education.Violin solos by Miss Florence Moore and Miss Rhea Barth; music by a male quartet, consisting of Prof. N. L.
Glover, W. C. Findley, Max Glover and Mr. Charles Clark, and a solo by Professor Glover, varied the program.The names of the members of the class of 1901 and the titles of the theses, follows:Bachelor of Arts: Mary Lucinda Crazz, Akron, "A Discussion of the English Novel."Adelaide Louise Foltz, Akron, "The Beginnings of English Literature."Park Rexford Kolbe, Akron, "The Origin and Relation of the English and German Languages—A Comparative tions."Ella Pearl Ticknor, Mogadore, "A ative Study."Emily Jane Evans, Akron, "The Plays."Emma Grace Kellam, Akron, "The

Upon the Nineteenth Century."Ralph Emerson Myers, Akron, "The

TOLD BY PAIN

If you have pains you should look after them quickly. Pain shows something is wrong. The sharper the pain the more danger there is in delay. There are thousands of women today who are bearing awful pain almost continually, rather than tell a physician about the shooting pains in their lower abdomen, about the agony of falling of the womb and the distress of leucorrhoea. They let the months pass and their trouble becomes harder to cure and more distressing. But modest women can secure exemption from the embarrassment of a private examination. When pain tells you of danger you can cure yourself by the use of

WINE OF CARDUI

You can be cured without distressing publicity—in the privacy of your home.
With these facts before you there is no reason for the delay which is increasing your misery and wasting the days of your life. Why not stop the pain today?

Belen, Miss., March 9, 1900.

I have used one bottle of Wine of Cardui and one package of Thedford's Black-Draught. Before I began to take your medicines I had pains in my back, hips, lower bowels and my arms. Sometimes I thought I would go blind. My head ached and I was so weak I could hardly walk across the floor. Now I can only feel a little of the pain in my side and I am going to use your medicines until I get cured, for I believe they will certainly cure me. I have been married twelve years and am the mother of seven children. I thank you for your wonderful medicine and what it has done for me.For advice and literature address, giving symptoms, "The Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Company, Chattanooga, Tenn.
